Manifesting With Intuition

THE STORY THAT THE SOURCE INSIDE YOU IS TELLING

The source inside you is always tell a story. It's a flow that moves through you, wisdom that moves through you.

If we tune in, there is a story of optimism, health, happiness, gratitude and joy within us. There is also stories of lack, scarcity, and fear. We can choose at any time to tune into the story of the source inside you.

This is what your intuition is – the story of Source.

When we start to shift our awareness from our programmed, automatic reactionary stories and into the story of the divine, we are able to manifest and hear our intuition much faster & more reliably.

The source inside you is always saying it's going to be okay, you're doing a great job and that you are fully on the path to your best life. The source within you knows HOW everything is going to come together and your next step.

Can you tune into that story right now?

MANIFESTING WITH INTUITION

One big reason that we want to use our intuition is to bring in the things we want – change, clarity, material items, love, friends, career opportunities, calm, self love, travel, money, health/healing etc. When we tell the story of the Source inside us and use our intuition

We use our intuition to manifest by tuning into our next step and taking that inspired action that is presented to us. We cannot know all of the steps it will take and in fact we aren't responsible for all of the steps, we just need to know the next one and you can use your intuition to know and find your next step.

YOU ARE ONLY EVER RESPONSIBLE FOR YOUR next step.

1) GRATITUDE + ASKING

"Universe, thank you for guiding me to be/do/have _____ . I will be waiting and excited about your guidance and I am ready to take action"

We thank the universe for the guidance, believe in it and expect this guidance to come. As often as possible you thank the universe for the guidance to come and for the blessings that are already in your life.

2) INTUITIVE TYPE EMBODYMENT

This here is the quantum secret - using your intuition to embody the result you want. Pull forward your desires by focusing on the feelings, knowings, sounds, sights, smells that you will be experiencing once you manifest your goal.

Use this embodiment in a ritual as you ask or as an ongoing exercise that accelerates manifestation.

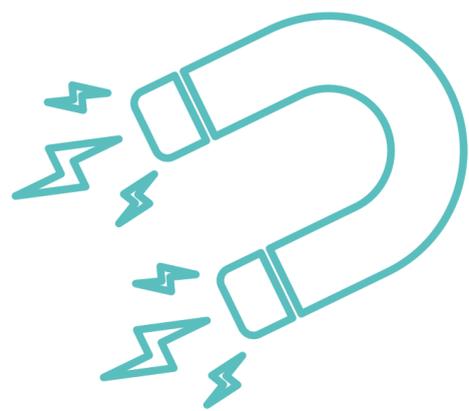

If you are clairsentient, dive into what the feelings will be when you have what you want. Joy? relief? excitement? encouragement? confidence? gratitude?

If you are claircognizant, what do you KNOW will happen once you have your desire? what will be your first actions once it is manifested?

For clairaudient people, what sounds will you hear when you receive what you want? Can you hear yourself telling others? waves on a beach? celebration and applause?

For clairvoyants, what will it look like to have this? what will you see?

For clairsalients - what will you smell? ocean? new car smell? your loves cologne, perfume or natural scent? The forest? Candles?

What is she knowing,
feeling, hearing,
smelling, seeing?

3) ASK FOR YOUR NEXT STEP

Pray/ask for your next step in moving toward [YOUR GOAL]. Listen, watch, hear and allow the guidance to come.

Ask yourself "If I knew what the next step was, what would I say it is?" Be in the receiving mode (go back to week 2 for instant inspiration). Once you ask, it's important to know that it is being given. You WILL be nudged, shown, encouraged and pulled forward in some way or another.

4) INSPIRED ACTION

Inspired action is acting from a place of intuition. Moving toward the life you want, one action at a time.

Action propels us forward when it comes from an inspired place - just like you choosing to do this course!

Inspired action hits you as exciting thoughts, ideas and notions. Using your knowledge of your intuitive type and how you receive specific guidance - watch for it to come in knowings, feelings, images or sounds.

The biggest, most important aspect of this step is ACTION. You need to take action my love. You have had a million inspired ideas in your life - but how often have you acted on them? How "good" are you at acting on your inspiration?

When you launch your desire and then take intentional, inspired action - it's only a matter of time before it becomes yours.

All you need to EVER focus on is the next step. When you are actively working toward anything - your only job is the next step. I don't get obsessed with the whole picture because I know that my job is the next step and that it will always be presented to me as I follow the manifestation process.

Identifying The Next Step

WHAT NEXT STEPS LOOK LIKE

Keep in mind the next step may be releasing something that is blocking you, an action to propel you forward, a realization, investing in something or a new way of thinking about your situation.

This is why we need to be open to everything in our lives and look at everything as a teacher. Even frustrations, "bad days", negative thoughts and low vibes are teachers that help us to move to the next step.

It's important to know that your "next step" is being given to you all the time and is usually not obviously connected to your vision. Sometimes it's a clear and obvious step but often it's indirectly getting you to your goal quicker than you could plan out yourself.

Often we discount the "small" inner nudges to take a walk, call a friend, journal or read a certain book but those are all working for you to step into the life you're meant for and attract more miracles into your life.

Often as humans we think we know the steps and how they should look. This control makes the manifestation process take longer and has us go the long way.

IF YOU DON'T KNOW YOUR NEXT STEP...

This is really important. If you don't know your next step – just still and focus on being in receiving mode. This is often "the problem" – we act out of desperation, not inspiration. If I don't know my next step, I focus on being receptive and open and wait for it to present itself. Once it does, I practice acting on it fast!

When I feel stagnant and like the next step isn't coming to me I just chill, wait and journal daily (or when it feels right) – trusting that the next step is on its way. I can be patient and wait for the Universe to align with my desire and show me the next step.

DESIRE CALLS IT FORWARD.

ACTION ALLOWS
